Subject: Geargrinders report to the Board – 2018 season wrap

Attached is the final 2018 Geargrinders Budget Report, showing final yearend actuals.

Bottomline, the 2018 rally program budget anticipated a profit of $1,605; the actual yearend profit was $1,022. (The $1,775 cost of insurance is not considered in this calculation, as it is a fixed cost over which we have no control.)

Increasing attendance is key. Although attendance was low early in the season, it steadily improved:

The Mountains to the Sea Rally in August and the Ghouls Gambol Rally were the two most heavily attended events of the season. They continue to be the jewels in Cascade's rally program.

Please let us know what questions you have about the 2018 rally season. Thank you for your support!
