Ghouls Gambol LII

For over 50 years ghosts, goblins, spooks, spirits, the dead, the undead, and even the mostly dead have returned to haunt the Cascade Sports Car Club's Halloween road rally. This year the rally explored Washington County's hills, farmland and autumn colors including a stop at Lakeview Farms.

Along the way rally teams encountered a number switch (numbered route instructions must be executed in ascending numerical order), an instruction that offered a pause if the distance between two NRIs was greater than 1 mile (NRIs are only on the printed page and the distance between them is usually less than an inch), and even an appearance by the old ONTO the quoted sign trap (you can drive ONTO a road but not a sign). All told, teams faced nine traps over four legs.

Taking top honors for the day was the Unlimited team of Larry LeFebvre and Brandon Harer, with Jim Martin and John Kisela from Washington in second Unlimited. First SOP and third overall was claimed by another team from Washington, Dave and Kathy Sacry. Eric Olbrist and his daughter Madelaine took first in the Nervous class. Awards were also presented to the best dressed cars and best dressed contestants and workers.

The rally concluded at the Rogue Brew Pub in downtown North Plains where the food was tasty and the service excellent. Thanks go to our checkpoint crews of Paul Eklund and Yulia Smolyansky and Linda Blackburn and Victoria Saager, and Larry LeFebvre for registrar duties.
